OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

SPECIALIZED TALENT AND WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS

Securing top-tier talent is critical to your success, yet navigating the process of sourcing, vetting and recruiting skilled professionals can be costly and overwhelming. Whether you need specialized expertise for unique operational or IT initiatives, temporary staffing to meet increases in market demand or permanent placement for critical management roles, Consolidated Analytics' Consulting and Advisory focus on Operational Excellence ensures your organization remains agile, scalable and ready for any challenge.

We work with originators, servicers and capital markets participants to fill key positions, manage projects or bolster your internal teams. Our extensive network of mortgage and financial services consultants include specialists and subject matter experts (SME) with an average of 15+ years of experience in business strategy, systems and technology, operations, regulatory compliance, risk management, and process optimization.

A SPECIALIZED APPROACH TO TALENT ACQUISITION

Our team of committed talent managers specialize in diverse domains and utilizes a variety of strategies to accelerate recruitment success. Our solution offers:

- Nationwide outreach for top talent in business strategy, operations, technology and regulatory compliance
- Proven record for delivering top candidates to leading financial and mortgage institutions
- Direct, online, and referral recruiting strategies
- Talent performance tracking and reporting
- Robust database of role requirements and criteria

Staff Augmentation

Project Consulting & Staffing

We simplify the support for large-scale or short-term project execution, project management, and oversight by leveraging consultants with an average of 15 years of experience in mortgage, financial services, and technology.

Permanent Placement

Clients in the financial and mortgage industries rely on our proven track record of building high-performing teams. They entrust us to identify and place candidates in executive leadership, management, support staff, and specialized roles.

SOLUTIONS & SERVICES OVERVIEW

Recruiting isn't just about finding bodies. At Consolidated Analytics we focus on Operational Excellence and sourcing the talent that aligns with your distinct strategic goals. In an environment marked by unpredictable market dynamics, it's crucial to have stabilizing influences within your corporate structure. We leverage our extensive and continually expanding pool of resources to ensure our clients secure talent with the necessary skills, competencies, subject matter expertise, and ethical standards to drive your business forward.

Governance & Compliance

Regulatory complexity has reached unprecedented levels. You need talent that can keep up with government, agency, federal, and local regulations and develop policies and procedures to protect your operations. Our recruiters specialize in sourcing top compliance specialists and experts with the requisite credentials experience and training.

Strategy and Business

In the landscape of market, technology, and economic shifts, adaptability is paramount. To maintain competitiveness, strategic thinkers and planners are indispensable. We specialize in recruiting executives with demonstrated expertise in transformation and growth, ensuring your business remains relevant and agile in any market environment.

Operations and Processes

We specialize in recruiting and placing operations staff who bring diverse experience and best practices across various functions including loan processing, underwriting, origination, closing, post-closing, servicing and portfolio management. Our objective is to place those who add value by enhancing efficiency and optimizing workflow

Systems and Technology

Whether you are implementing a new fintech solution, integrating a third-party vendor or tackling an enterprise-wide system implementation, our consultants are here to help. From road map development through system implementation, automation and optimization our team ensures your objectives are successfully achieved.
